5. Holders of expired Amateur Radio Operator Certificate/Station License (ROC/RSL) and of Club Station Licenses shall be allowed to renew their license without penalties and surcharges. However, an applicant shall pay arrears equivalent to license fee for every year or a fraction of a year that the license has expired. In line with the ongoing call sign management modernization program of the Commission, all amateur applications under this Order shall be issued a new call sign subject to its availability and on a first come first serve basis.
6. Operation of amateur radio equipment shall be authorized only within the amateur radio frequency channel/bands, 144.00 MHz – 146.00 MHz (non-expandable). However, radio equipment with expanded frequency band may be registered and licensed for a maximum of three (3) years only but not beyond December 31, 2016. After this period, no amateur radio operator certificate/station license shall be renewed without this radio equipment having been replaced and fixed to a non-expandable radio equipment.
7. Expired Radio Station License issued to Civic Action Groups and Private Network Company shall be allowed to renew without penalties and surcharges. However, an applicant shall pay arrears equivalent to license fee for every year or a fraction of a year that the license has expired.
8. Radio Equipment which are not type-approved/accepted for commercial band and are being used in Civic Action Groups and Private Networks, are hereby allowed to be registered and be issued a Radio Station License for a maximum validity period of three (3) years only but not beyond December 31, 2016. After this period, no radio station license shall be renewed without this radio equipment having been replaced to a commercially type-acceptance/approved unit.
9. Registrants and/or applicants shall only be accepted in all NTC Regional Offices.
10. The registration of the above-stated radio equipment shall not be construed as an authority to construct and/or operate the same without the corresponding permits/licenses. Any violation pertaining to the use of such registered equipment including its use by persons other than the registrant shall be a ground for appropriate administrative sanctions and/or fines and penalties as may be imposed by this Commission.
11. All radio equipment registered under this Memorandum Order shall be at the accountability of the registrant.
12. All licenses which have been revoked by final decision of the Commission are excluded from the amnesty program.
13. The Commission reserves the right to reject the registration of any radio equipment if and when warranted under the circumstances in the interest of the public.

Issued this 30 day of July, 2013 at Quezon City, Philippines.
